

2011

As part of Heritage Week, The Heritage Council, South Tipperary County Council, Clonmel Borough Council, Local traders, Vintners Association, Food producers and many, many more are coming together to bring you 'Festival Cluain Meala'.

The weekend event will kick off at 7pm at Old St. Mary's Church on Friday 26th August 2011 and includes a special performance by Micheál O Suilleabhain and Banna Chluain Meala, followed at 9pm by a Medieval Inn Trail. Medieval Costumes are available for a €20 deposit (refundable that night).

Clonmel Walled Towns Evening

Saturday 27th August 2011, 7pm - FREE family fun evening, at Gordon Place car park beside Clonmel's Town Walls. Entertainment includes medieval joust, combat school, workshops, best medieval dressed competition, re enactments and a fire display.

During the festivities a ticketed Medieval Themed Banquet (3 course meal- Adults €25 Child €12.50) will be served. Tickets are limited and are being sold in South Tipperary County Museum, The Narrow Space, Clonmel Tourist Office and Gleeson's pub.

Free Festival all day Sunday 28th August 2011

Celebrating Food and Farming at the Main Guard, Sarsfield Street and the Quay. 'Tipperary Breakfast', Hearn's Hotel, 8am – 12.30pm €9.50 locally sourced produce.

Free events from 12 noon – 5pm to include, craft stalls, face painting, workshops, exhibitions, family fun, music, willow fencing, butter making, family farm, stocks and black smith. Food stalls & craic galore.

'Clonmel Business and Industries' Exhibition will be displayed in the Main Guard from 9th August - 10th Sept 2011.

Spend time out to relax and soak up the atmosphere before the summer draws to a close. For further information visit www.southtipperheritage.ie

"It's a great honour for me as Mayor & First Citizen of Clonmel to formally launch, Festival Cluain Meala, the festival now in its 3rd year has been growing from strength to strength and this year is no different. I want to express my thanks and gratitude to the committee that has been in place for a number of months now, I am more than aware of the enormous amount of time and effort that you have all put into ensuring the festival is a success. The festival will take place from 26th - 28th August with something for the entire family to enjoy during the weekend. I am appealing to the people of Clonmel to support this festival and join us in celebrating our heritage," Mayor Cllr. Darren Ryan.